Exhibit A¹ that is attached to this order. The sale of the properties that are listed in the list of properties that is attached to this order as Exhibit B² shall be postponed to June 7, 2011. The provisions of this

POSTPONEMENT OF : PHILADELPHIA COUNTY
FORECLOSURE SALE OF : CIVIL DIVISION

Petition Philadelphia Unemployment Project (PUP) :
: No. 02670

Emergency Petition To Further Postpone Mortgage Foreclosure Sheriff's Sale Of
Owner-Occupied Residential Properties

1. Petitioner Philadelphia Unemployment Project (PUP) is a nonprofit, membership organization in the City of Philadelphia representing the interests of unemployed persons. For over 35 years, PUP has been actively involved in addressing the problems of its members including mortgage foreclosure of their homes.

2. In 1983 PUP was instrumental in the creation of the Pennsylvania Homeowners Emergency Mortgage Assistance Program (HEMAP) and more recently PUP was actively involved in the creation of the federal Emergency Homeowners Loan Program (EHLA), which was mandated by a provision of the Dodd–Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Pub.L. 111-203, H.R. 4173).

3. PUP has been an active member of the Mortgage Foreclosure Steering Committee and the convener of the Mortgage Foreclosure Crisis Committee, an organization of homeowners faced with foreclosure who work together to prevent the loss of their homes. PUP is also a housing counseling agency that formally advocates for homeowners in the diversion program. PUP is intimately familiar with the need for a program like EHLP and the extent to which the homeowners most likely to get the help offered by ELHP are precisely those homeowners who are most likely to lose their homes if the sheriff sales are not postponed. PUP’s members and clients are faced with the imminent sale of their homes at the April 5, 2011 Sheriff’s Sale.

4. The EHLP program provides substantial monetary assistance to homeowners who are faced with the loss of their homes due to a reduction in income resulting from unemployment, underemployment, or medical problems.

5. Under EHLP homeowners can receive up to $50,000.00 of assistance in the form of an interest free loan to cure arrears, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, and to provide continuing assistance for up to 24 months to help make future mortgage payments. Under certain circumstances the loan may be forgiven.

6. Pennsylvania has been allocated approximately $106 million under EHLP.

7. This sum represents almost 10 times the amount that has been recently appropriated by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the HEMAP program.

8. The program in Pennsylvania will be administered by the Pennsylvania

Housing Finance Agency (PHFA).

9. The legislation creating EHLP requires that the entire $106 million be obligated by the end of September 2011.

10. In December 2010 the monies for the program were expected to be received by PHFA in early January 2011.

11. Because of that, on December 23, 2011, this Court entered an order postponing the Sheriff Sales of Owner -Occupied Residential Properties resulting from judgments in mortgage foreclosure actions to February 1, 2011.

12. Thereafter, the Sheriff sales of all properties were further postponed to April 5, 2011 because of administrative problems in the office of the Sheriff.

13. Since January 2011, there has been substantial progress in the implementation of the EHLP program in Pennsylvania.

14. On March 4, 2011 HUD published in the Federal Register the “Interim Regulations and Notice of Activation of Program and Availability of Emergency Assistance” under EHLP. PHFA and HUD are in the process of finalizing the documents including the agreement necessary to implement the program.

15. Because it has not yet consummated its final agreement with HUD, PHFA has not yet formally announced EHLP and PHFA has not expended any funds to make homeowners aware that the program exists. PHFA cannot do so until the agreements are completed and consummated.

16. In anticipation of the EHLP being funded, PHFA recently began to accept preliminary applications for the program and PHFA has authorized its Housing Counselors to complete the preliminary applications and to forward them on to PHFA, although PHFA cannot yet approve any applications.

17. PHFA is committed to promptly process those applications once the necessary contracts are signed and the money from HUD is committed.

18. At present there are approximately 3000 homeowners whose houses are scheduled for sale at the April 5, 2011 Sheriff Sale.

19. Of that number, based on recent past experience, the sales of close to ½ of these properties are already slated to be postponed, or stayed either by agreement or for reasons unrelated to the EHLPP program.

20. Many of the homeowners whose homes are presently scheduled to be sold are precisely those for whom EHLPP was designed. They are people who have insufficient income to get a HAMP loan modification, or who have been denied consideration under HAMP because they are unemployed, or who have been unable to get other relief or whose modifications failed because they are unemployed, underemployed or suffer from medical expenses.

21. All the homeowners whose homes are scheduled for sheriff sale on April 5, 2011, are people who have had judgments entered against them on or before January 24, 2011, the cut off date for inclusion on the April 5, 2011 sheriff sale list, and have had complaints filed against them prior to December 25, 2010.

22. Homeowners who have had complaints in mortgage foreclosure filed against them after January 24, 2011 have been formally referred as part of the Court of Common Pleas Mortgage Foreclosure Diversion Program to housing counselors to submit preliminary applications for EHLP.

23. The referral to Housing Counselors for EHLP is made pursuant to a formal notice from the Court that is delivered with the Complaint in mortgage foreclosure and it is reinforced by instructions that the Homeowner receives when they arrive in Courtroom 676 for the Court scheduled conciliation conference.

24. While this system has been set up prospectively to systematically inform people subject to foreclosure that they might be able to get help from the EHLP program and to encourage applications, no such system existed for the homeowners whose homes are scheduled for sheriff sale on April 5, 2011.

25. Because HUD and PHFA have not yet consummated the EHLP contract , PHFA cannot announce the program, or advertise it, or fund specific outreach to notify people scheduled for sheriff sale that they may be eligible for the program and to apply for the program. PHFA has indicated that it is considering funding such outreach once the contract is consummated and it has solicited and received a proposal for door to door outreach to homeowners in Philadelphia whose houses are scheduled for sheriff sale.

26. The Save Your Home Philly Hotline and the Housing Counseling agencies do not have the resources to effectively reach out to the owners of the approximately 3000 properties scheduled for sheriff sale on April 5, 2011 to alert them to the need to apply for the EHLP program, particularly in the absence of a formal announcement by PHFA of the beginning of the Program.

27. If the April sale is permitted to proceed, with respect to all of the properties on the list, hundreds, and perhaps over a thousand Philadelphia homeowners who could save their homes with funds from EHLP will lose their homes only days or weeks before that assistance actually becomes available, without ever being aware that the help is available to them and without ever having had a chance to apply for it. .

28. The program is closer to implementation now than it was in December 2011 when the Court originally postponed the January Sale, and the infrastructure has been put in place to take applications.

29. The unnecessary sale of hundreds or thousands of homes will only exacerbate the burdens placed on all the residents of the city who have been suffering from the consequences of the foreclosure epidemic and will only frustrate the congressional intent behind the passage of the EHLP legislation.

30. The greater the number of people who are allowed to lose their homes to sheriff sales between now and September 2011, the greater the likelihood that PHFA will be unable to spend all of the $106 million allocated to Pennsylvania to prevent foreclosures. This will increase the likelihood that a significant portion of the $106 million will have to be returned to the federal government instead of being used to keep people in their homes and being used to ameliorate the adverse effects of foreclosures on all the residents of the City and on economic well being of the City.

31. A similar set of circumstances in 1983 prompted then President Judge Bradley to postpone the mortgage foreclosure Sheriff Sales of all owner occupied residential properties for almost 12 months in anticipation of the passage of Act 91 of 1983, which created the Homeowners Emergency Mortgage Assistance Program (HEMAP).

32. At that time the population of the City of Philadelphia was almost a third greater than it is presently. The Court was nonetheless compelled to act by what it perceived to be a foreclosure crises when there were approximately 300 properties being scheduled for Sheriff Sale a month in total, about 1/2 the number of properties that were being newly listed for sale each month prior to the recent reorganization of the sheriff's office.

33. In 1983, the passage of Act 91 and implementation of HEMAP was many months away when the Court began to postpone the sheriff sales, so that homeowners could get the benefit of HEMAP.

34. In contrast, EHLP has already been passed and funded. HUD has already published the regulations for the program, the EHLP application that will be used in Pennsylvania has already been drafted and put into use, preliminary applications have been accepted by PHFA, though PHFA cannot yet approve them, and the program is close to being fully implemented and advertised so that the homeowners most in need of the help can be made aware of the existence of the program.

35. In the instant case the amount of available funds are substantially greater, the time in which the funds must be spent shorter, the need for the funds more pressing and the consequences to the homeowners and to the City at large more onerous if the opportunity for the homeowners to take advantage of the funds is lost, than was the case in 1983.

36. The authority of the Court to take the requested action is clear and was articulated and reaffirmed in 2008 by then President Judge Jones when he entered the Order postponing Sheriff Sales of residential owner occupied properties and creating the Mortgage Foreclosure Diversion Program.

37. The Court has the authority and the obligation to exercise control over the execution of its judgments so as to do no harm to the general public and so as to avoid injustice and the authority to control the manner in which its Writs of Execution are enforced.

38. This Court recognized its authority to act when it entered its December 23, 2011 order postponing the January 4, 2011 sale of owner occupied, residential properties.

39. A further postponement of the Sheriff Sale of certain properties is even more urgently needed now than it was then.

40. Despite the absence of an announcement by PHFA of the existence of the EHLP program in Pennsylvania, and despite the absence of any media advertisement of the program and despite the absence of any Court endorsed formal program to refer Homeowners to counselors to apply for EHLP, the Save Your Home Philly Hotline undertook an attempt to make Homeowners aware that the program was imminent and to encourage homeowners listed for sheriff sale to apply.

41. The Save your Home Philly Hotline, using volunteers, tried to make homeowners listed for sheriff sale on April 5, 2011 aware of the EHLP program and to identify: those homeowners who have preliminary applications for EHLP that have already been received by PHFA; those homeowners who have been to housing counselors and who are in the process of completing their EHLP preliminary applications; and those homeowners who, having been advised of the existence of the program wish to have an opportunity to apply for EHLP and who expressed an intention to do so.

42. It was thought that this effort could provide the basis for identifying homeowners on the April 5, 2011 list whose sales should be postponed until their EHLP applications were acted upon.

43. Unfortunately, the number of homeowners who could be reached by the volunteers was limited by a number of factors: First, less than 1/3 of the list of all properties listed for sale on April 5, 2011 was available to the Save Your Home Hotline before late in the day March 22, 2011. The Hot Line was not able to identify over two thirds of the properties that are on the sheriff sale for April 5, 2011. This was because the sheriff had only published those properties that were first listed for sale for the February, March and April sheriff sales. The majority of the properties presently scheduled to be sold on April 5, 2011, were sales postponed to April 5, 2011 from dates before February, 2011 ; Second , of the addresses available to the Hotline, the Hotline had phone numbers for about 911 people. Third, of those homeowners for whom the Hotline had phone numbers, over 1/3 of the numbers were no longer correct, mostly because of the proliferation of prepaid cell phones. Of the people for whom there were apparently valid numbers, less than ½ answered their phones. For the remainder the Hotline volunteers left messages when possible. In many cases there was no way to leave a message. Of the homeowners the Hotline volunteers reached, through this process, a total of approximately 227 as of March 23, 2011, the vast majority had not previously been aware of EHLP and expressed the desire to have the opportunity to apply for EHLP. Some had heard of EHLP and had EHLP applications in process or completed. Others had made some other arrangement with the lender leading them to believe that the sale had been postponed. A small number, approximately 6 of the 227 homeowners the Hotline volunteers spoke to expressed a desire to let the property go to sheriff sale.

44. Most of the people the Hotline volunteers did not reach, who are not already actively involved with a housing counselor or with an attorney form PLA or CLS, have received no meaningful information about the existence of the EHLPP program and no meaningful opportunity to express a desire and an intention to apply for the program.

45. Attached hereto and marked as “Exhibit A” is a list of properties scheduled for sale on April 5, 2011 which appear to be non-owner occupied and non residential, or which appear to be owned by owners who have confirmed that they are not interested in preventing the sale or are not interested in taking advantage of or applying for EHLPP.

46. Attached hereto as “Exhibit B” is a list of the properties scheduled for sale on April 5, 2011 that are owner occupied and residential and belong to homeowners who have submitted a completed preliminary application for EHLPP; who are working on a preliminary EHLPP application with an advocate or a housing counselor; who have expressed a desire for an opportunity to apply for EHLPP after being informed of the program; or who appear to be unaware of the EHLPP program and appear to have had no meaningful opportunity to express a desire to apply for EHLPP or to participate in the application process.

47. Postponement of the sale of the properties listed on Exhibit B to June 7, 2011 is required to provide sufficient time for PHFA to complete setting up the EHLPP program and for a significant number of the people whose properties are listed on Exhibit B to complete EHLPP applications or pre-applications, given the limited number of Counselors available to do the applications and the substantial amount of time it takes to complete each application.

48. The sale of the properties listed on Exhibit A as scheduled on April 5, 2011 is appropriate, subject to any orders of the court regarding those individual matters or directions from the plaintiff to postpone or stay the sale of those properties.

49. Postponing the sales of the properties listed on Exhibit B is analogous to the orders entered at the outset of the Diversion program, which were required until a “day forward” program could be set up to capture homeowners when the complaint in mortgage foreclosure was first filed.

50. The postponement of those properties is also analogous to what then President Judge Bradley did in 1983, when he postponed sales until the HEMAP program was up and running, to give homeowners with sheriff sales scheduled an opportunity to participate in a program that other homeowners would have an opportunity to participate in before they were sued.

51. By the July 12, 2011 sale all the homeowners with judgments against them will have been sued after January 24, 2011 and will have received notice of the EHLPP program in connection with their participation in the Diversion Program and will have had an opportunity to have participated in the program prior to the scheduling of a sheriff sale.

Wherefore, petitioner Philadelphia Unemployment Project respectfully prays this Court to exercise its administrative authority to postpone the April 5, 2011 sheriff sale of the properties listed on Exhibit B attached hereto.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: March 24, 2011
